Preface

Plenary Session I. Clinical trends in diagnosis and therapy of reproductive disorders. Chairperson: H. Dobson (UK)

Ultrasonography as a diagnostic tool in female animal reproduction
W. Kähn (Munich, Germany) 1

Application of gonadotrophin releasing hormone as therapeutic agent in animal reproduction
M. Drost and W.W. Thatcher (Gainesville, FL, USA) 11

Symposium 1. Clinical trends in equine reproduction and A.I. Chairperson: M. Tischner (Poland)

Photoperiodism in the equine species—what is a long night?
E. Palmer and D. Guillaume (Nouzilly, France) 21

The diagnosis and handling of early gestational abnormalities in the mare
W.R. Allen (Newmarket, UK) 31

Routine AI application in the Hannoverian Sport Horse Breeding Association
E. Klug (Hannover, Germany) 39

Symposium 2. Pig reproduction. Chairperson: F. Madec (France)

Epidemiological evaluation of fertility management in swine herds
Y.H. Schukken, J. Buurman, A.H. Willemse, J.C.M. Vernooy, J. van den Broek and J.H.M. Verheijden (Utrecht, Netherlands), and R.B.M. Huirne, (Wageningen, Netherlands) 45

Endometritis and vaginal discharge in the sow
P.J.J. de Winter, M. Verdonck, A. De Kruif, L.A. Devriese and F. Haesebrouck (Ghent, Belgium) 51

Perinatal mortality in pigs
J. Svendsen (Lund, Sweden) 59

Symposium 3. Sperm. Chairperson: R.A.P. Harrison (UK)

Morphological, functional and biochemical changes underlying the preparation and selection of fertilising spermatozoa 'in vivo'
E.R.S. Roldan (Cambridge, UK) and M. Gomendio (Madrid, Spain) 69

Molecular mechanisms of fertilization and activation of development
D.J. Burks and P.M. Saling (Durham, NC, USA) 79

Laboratory assessment of semen characteristics
N. den Daas (Arnhem, Netherlands) 87

Symposium 4. Control and manipulation of corpus luteum function. Chairperson: D. Schams (Germany)

Luteotrophic control of the corpus luteum
D.T. Baird (Edinburgh, UK) 95

Functional aspects of differentiation and degeneration of the steroidogenic cells of the corpus luteum in domestic ruminants
M.C. Wiltbank (Madison, WI, USA) and G.D. Niswender (Fort Collins, CO, USA) 103

Mechanisms associated with corpus luteum lifespan in animals having normal or subnormal luteal function
H.A. Garverick, W.G. Zollers and M.F. Smith (Columbia, MO, USA) 111

Plenary Session II. Embryo production and manipulation. Chairperson: K.J. Betteridge (Canada)
The production of ruminant embryos in vitro
A. Trounson (Clayton, Vic., Australia) 125
Clinical aspects of embryo transfer in some domestic farm animals
M. Thibier and M. Nibart (Maisons Alfort, France) 139
Impact of biotechnology on animal breeding
I. Wilmut, C.S. Haley and J.A. Woolliams (Roslin, UK) 149
Embryo production and manipulation: ethical aspects
E. Schroten (Utrecht, Netherlands) 163

Symposium 5. Immunological techniques in reproduction. Chairperson: R.B. Heap (UK)
Influence of the immune system on reproductive function
R.F. Seamark, M. Hadjisavas and S.A. Robertson (Adelaide, Vic., Australia) 171
Monitoring reproduction using immunological techniques
T. van der Lende, R.B.M. Schasfoort (Zeist, Netherlands) and R.F. van der Meer (Wijk bij Duurstede, Netherlands) 179
Immunomodulation of reproductive systems
M. Hage-van Noort, W.C. Puijk, W.M.M. Schaaper, D. Kuperus, N.J.C.M. Beekman, H.H. Plasman, H. Lankhof, C.J.G. Wensing and R.H. Meloen (Lelystad, Netherlands) 187

Symposium 6. Environmental factors on reproductive activity in domestic species. Chairperson: G.H. Stabenfeldt (USA)
Domestication and reproduction
B.P. Setchell (Glen Osmond, S.A., Australia) 195
Photoperiod–pineal–hypothalamic relay in sheep
G.A. Lincoln (Edinburgh, UK) 203
Influence of non-photoperiodic environmental factors on reproduction in domestic animals
I.J. Clarke (Clayton, Vic., Australia) and A.J. Tilbrook (Werribee, Vic., Australia) 219

Symposium 7. Preservation of gametes. Chairperson: T. Greven (Denmark)
Preservation of semen
K.F. Weitze and R. Petzoldt (Hannover, Germany) 229
Cryopreservation of oocytes and embryos: methods and applications
W.F. Rall (Washington, DC, USA) 237
Genetic resource banks for conserving wildlife species: justification, examples and becoming organized on a global basis
D.E. Wildt (Washington, DC, USA) 247

Symposium 8. Relationship between uterine environment and embryonic development: practical consequences. Chairperson: W.F. Pope (USA)
Synchrony embryo–uterus
C.J. Ashworth (Aberdeen, UK) 259
Early embryonic signals: embryo–maternal interactions before implantation
F. Gandolfi, T.A.L. Brevini, S. Modina and L. Passoni (Milan, Italy) 269
Manipulation of early embryonic development
E.W. Overstrom (North Grafton, MA, USA) 277

Plenary Session III. From early pregnancy to the neonatal period. Chairperson: W.W. Thatcher (USA)
Maternal recognition of pregnancy
R.D. Geisert, E.C. Short (Stillwater, OK, USA) and M.T. Zavy (El Reno, OK, USA) 287

Embryonic development and fetal growth
P.J. Dzuik (Urbana, IL, USA) 299
Perinatal adaptation in animals
G.C.B. Randall (Nepean, Ont., Canada) 309

Plenary Session IV. Hormonal regulation. Chairperson: M.A. Driancourt, (France)
Hormonal regulation of reproduction—general concepts
J.K. Findlay, D.M. Robertson, I.J. Clarke, R. Klein, B.W. Doughton, S. Xiao, D.L. Russell and L. Shukovski (Clayton, Vic., Australia) 319
The neuroendocrine signal for ovulation
F.J. Karsch, S.M. Moenter (Ann Arbor, MI, USA), and A. Caraty (Nouzilly, France) 329
Intraovarian regulation of follicular development
D.K. Lobb (Hamilton, Ont., Canada) and J. Dorrington (Toronto, Ont., Canada) 343

Symposium 9. Cattle fertility problems. Chairperson: A. de Kruif (Belgium)
Oestrus detection in cattle: recent developments
A.R. Lehrer, E. Aizinbud (Bet Dagan, Israel) and G.S. Lewis (Blacksburg VA, USA) 355
Utero–ovarian relationships during the bovine postpartum period
H. Kindahl, K. Odensvik, S. Aiumlamai and G. Frederiksson (Uppsala, Sweden) 363
Postpartum anoestrus in dairy and beef cows
J.F. Roche, M.A. Crowe and M.P. Boland (Dublin, Ireland) 371

Symposium 10. Canine and feline reproduction. Chairperson: P.W. Concannon (USA)
Fertility problems in the bitch
A.C. Okkens, M.M. Bevers, S.J. Dieleman, B. van Haaften and F.J. van Sluijs (Utrecht, Netherlands) 379
Feline reproduction and artificial breeding technologies
K.L. Goodrowe (West Hill, Ont., Canada) 389
Terminating pregnancy in dogs and cats
P.N. Olson, S.D. Johnston, M.V. Root and R.L. Hegstad (St. Paul, MN, USA) 399

Symposium 11. Oocytes and embryos in vitro. Chairperson: T.A.M. Kruip (Netherlands)
Oocyte maturation and fertilization
K. Goto (Kagoshima, Japan) and A. Iritani (Nara, Japan) 407
Embryo development in vitro to the blastocyst stage in cattle, pigs and sheep
R.M. Petters (Raleigh, NC, USA) 415
Reconstruction of ungulate embryos by nuclear transplantation
R. Moor, F.Z. Sun and C. Galli (Cambridge, UK) 423

Symposium 12. Parturition. Chairperson: W.C. Wagner (USA)
Physiology of parturition
M.A.M. Taverne (Utrecht, Netherlands) 433
Parturition: spontaneous or induced preterm labour and its consequences for the neonate
M. Silver (Cambridge, UK) 441
Retained placenta: an immunological approach
I. Joosten and E.J. Hensen (Utrecht, Netherlands) 451
